NORWICH BULLETIN 31 Church Street Telephone 1063

At a meeting of the Willimantic Min-iscters' union, held Monday, January 9, it was proposed that a resolution be drawn up commending the action of Judge Frank H. Foss, and condemning the action of Presecuting Attorney Sam-uel B. Harvey and State's Attorney Charles E Searls, in the case of the state

In the course of the trial for the last offense, Prosecuting Attorney Harvey, knowing the facts already mentioned, declared himself in favor of a fine only. Judge Poss, in the best interest of public morals, refused to ignore the previous offenses, and imposed a fine of $200, and a juli sentence of fifteen days. The case was appealed and broght be-fore the superior court sitting in Willi-mantic on the first Tuesday in Janu-

State's Attorney Searls, notwithstand ing McQuillan's repeated offenses and the sentence of the lower court, acquiesced in the remittance of the jail sentence. By this action we believe that the prosecuting and state's attorney have thrown their official influence against the enforcement of fundamental law; and that the effect of fines only, in the case of wilful and repeated violation, is equal o licensing of law violation. We, there-ore, as citizens of this district and as ministers of churches in this vicinity, rey, State's Attorney Searls, Judge Banks, and that the press be notified of the action taken.

The resolution was signed by A. D. Jarpenter, W. F. Borohert, David R. Overton, George Christie, W. C. Norris, Overton, George Christie, W. C. Norris, H. S. McCready, John Pearce, Marshall Dawson, H. B. Goodsell, Charles G. Johnson, Harold W. Tillinghast, John H. Knott, Arthur W. Clifford, Allen H. rates, F. R. Nye, F. R. Custard and Villiam M. Brown, of the Ministers' nion and was endorsed by J. D. Conant. airman, and F. R. Custard, secretary the prohibition enforcement commite of the churches of Willimantie.

Trial of criminal cases will be re-sumed before Superior Court Judge John W. Banks in this city Tuesday of next week at 1 p. m. State's Attorney Searis arhounces the following assignments: Tuesday, State versus Nathaniel Hibbard, Arthur Eldredge, Theophile Rob-itaillie, Theodore Laparie, Joseph Gad-bois, George Brezult and Joseph Dumas.

Charles E. Searis, in the case of the state versus Arthur McQuillan for violation of the prohibition law. The resolution was drawn up and in substance was as follows:

Arthur McQuillan was brought before the police court of Willimantle a number of times under the old law, and twice, previous to the appearance referred to below, charged with the violation of the prohibition law; and was, we believe, convicted upon all these occasions. At the time before his last arrest the judge had warned him that if the came before the court again he would receive a jall sentence.

In the course of the trial for the last offense, Prosecuting Attorney Harvey, lect committee; press committee, Gret-chen Veglard, chairman, Ada Howlett and Elizabeth Howlett. It was voted to go to Norwich next week when a new hive is to be organized there. The local guard team will have charge of the in-citution. stitution.
